ASCS Today

Fewer prices to increase

By TOM CONRAD

FEWER FEED GRAIN ACRES WILL BOOST FARM PRICES - ASCS says the 10 percent reduced acreage program for 1982 corn, sorghum, oats and barley will help strengthen farm prices by reducing supplies for the 1982-83 marketing year.

Feed grain supplies are about 13 percent above last year and corn carryover stocks could total as much as 2 billion bushels by the beginning of the next marketing year -- the largest amount since 1960.

The program is voluntary, but only those who participate will be eligible for program benefits such as target prices, Commodity Credit Corporation loans, and the grain reserve program.

Program participants who submitted acreage reports will be eligible for target prices of $2.70 per bushel for corn, $2.60 for sorghum, and barley, and $1.50 per bushel for oats. They will also be eligible for regular Appomattox County loans.

Feed grain acres taken out of production must be eligible cropland that is protected under the land and water erosion. The land may not be mechanically harvested. However, farmers will be permitted to graze this acreage after October 1.

Any 1982 feed grains placed under loan will be eligible for immediate entry in the grain reserve at loan levels higher than for regular loans.

The sign-up period for 1982 farm programs began on February 16 and will be conducted through April 15.

FOUR LEAF AGREEMENTS - Flue growers can now enroll in the 4-leaf program. By agreeing to leave the bottom four leaves in the field (excluding plant bed leaves), an additional ten percent of tobacco can be planted.

The minimum cost of a farm visit ($14.50) must be paid when making application. The deadline for enrolling is April 15, 1982. WAREHOUSE DESIGNATIONS - April 15 is the deadline for the initial designation period for flue-cured tobacco warehouses. Failure to designate your warehouse(s) will result in loss of price support.

TOBACCO LEASING The flue-cured tobacco leasing deadline is April 15. Producers are asked to complete leasing agreements soon.

The fire-cured tobacco leasing deadline is June 1. Bulletin board space is available to post leasing intentions.

ALL-RISK CROP INSURANCE - Farmers who have not made application for their All-Risk Crop Insurance policy are reminded that March 31 is the corn deadline, April 30 is the grain sorghum deadline, and May 20 is the deadline for tobacco.

12-5 over Cumberland

Raiders win opener

The Raider varsity baseball team won its season opener Friday, a 12-5 victory over Cumberland in a game marked by intermittent rain.

Kevin Mitchell recorded the win on the mound for the Raiders. He was relieved in the fourth inning by M. J. House, who did "a fine job" of relief pitching, according to Raider Coach Howard Clabough.

The Raiders jumped into an early lead, scoring two runs in the first inning on hits by Rodney Bryant, Jody Williams (double) and Gary Ferguson. In the third inning, the Raiders scored three more runs on a hit by Jody Williams, a triple by Gary Ferguson, and a sacrifice fly by Kevin Mitchell.

Appomattox again scored three runs in the fourth inning on a double by Keith Mann and singles by Bryant, Williams and Greg Mayberry.

The Raiders scored once in the fifth inning on hits by Mann and Bryant, Then Appomattox scored three times in the sixth inning on two walks (M. J. House and Ken Caldwell) and singles by Randy Phelps and Keith Mann.

"I was pleased with our hitting," said Clabough after the game. "We had been having trouble hitting the ball in practice and in scrimmages. We've been hampered in batting practice by the weather."

Keith Mann went three for five at the plate, hit one double and drove in three runs. Rodney Bryant went three for five at the plate, drove in one run, and stole two bases. Jody Williams went three for five, drove in a run and stole two bases. Greg Mayberry got a single with the bases loaded and drove in three runs. Gary Ferguson went two for two, hit a triple, drove in three runs and got two stolen bases.

The Raiders recorded ten stolen bases against Cumberland.

"The fielding was hampered by the rain," Clabough said of the game conditions. He did commend the pitching efforts of Mitchell and House, and said he feels the Raiders are progressing well overall.

"In our first two scrimmages, we didn't hit very well," the coach noted. "But in this season opener, the hitting picked up."

The Raiders were scheduled to play Prince Edward Tuesday and Cumberland tomorrow (Friday) at Cumberland. Next Tuesday, the Raiders will face off against Prince Edward again, at home, and next Friday, Appomattox will travel to Buckingham for a 7:30 p.m. game.

You wouldn't want to miss the first fun activity of the year, would you?

Softball team

Girls lose first

The Raiderette softball team suffered "first-game jitters" in its season opener last Friday and fell to Heritage, 8-4.

"A combination of 16 errors, six Heritage runs in the fourth inning, and our leaving ten runners on base led to our downfall," Coach Mary Tolley commented after the game.

The Raiderettes started out well, taking a one-run lead in the bottom of the first inning. The game was played in a steady rain for about five innings. "Despite some pretty good defensive plays, and some good hits and base running, I think our inexperience made the difference," Tolley said.

The Raiderettes got eight hits during the game, including doubles by Jacquetta Booker and Marsha Cheatham, and a double and a triple by Kim Carter.

Raiderette pitcher Angie Murray allowed Heritage eight hits, but the Raiderette errors made the difference.

"We made some mental errors," Tolley said. A lot of the girls are still gaining experience. But the Heritage game is behind us now," the coach continued.

This week, the Raiderettes were scheduled to face off against Prince Edward and Jefferson Forest on Tuesday and Friday. Next Tuesday, the Raiderettes are scheduled to play Prince Edward away. Friday's game against Jefferson Forest is away, also. Game time is 4 p.m. for each game.

Track team gears up

The Appomattox boys' and girls' track teams were preparing this week for Monday's season-opening meet against Prince Edward.

Coach Ray Archer's boys' team will feature returnees Dennis Fleshman (sprints), Jack Williams (distance), Roy Trent (shot put and discus), Cornelius Davis (middle distance), William Thorntop (hurdles and jumping events), Jeff Fanney (hurdles), Todd Scruggs (relays), Wayne Phelps (pole vault), Tim Williams (pole vault) Freddie Napier (high jump, 400m), and Charlie Walker (800 m).

New to this year's boys' track team will be James Martin (sprints), Derrick Preston (distance), Tommy Robinson (shot put and discus), Donnie Scruggs (sprints), Walter Hurt (400 m, relays), Jeff Williams (pole vault), Greg Franklin (middle distance), Bruce Reed (distance) and Malcolm Miller (distance).

Track Coach Ray Archer says he feels the boys' team this season will be strong in distance running, with Charlie Walker, Malcolm Miller and Jack Williams excelling. Archer also expects the team to be fairly strong in the hurdle events, as well. And, the coach adds, the Raiders should place fairly regularly in the sprint events and pole vault, as well.

The girls' track team has returning this season Margaretta Flood (middle distance), Corrine Hubbard (400m), Ruby Smith (hurdles, 400m and 200m), Karen Stevens (distance) and Jane Harding (sprints).

Newcomers to this year's girls' squad will be Carolyn Carnefix (distance), Deborah Kelso (sprints), Terry Moore (middle distance), Donna Robinson, (sprints), Elizabeth Saunders (distance), Ester Saunders (shot put and discus), Kim Shupe (middle distance, high jump), Suzanne Wright (sprints), LaDell Wright (sprints, high jump), Gayle Pugh (400 m, relays), and Valerie Garrett (400 m, relays).

Karen Stevens and Carolyn Carnefix add strength to the Raiderette team's distance effort, according to Archer. Kim Shupe should excel in the 800 M. Ruby Smith in the 400 M, and LaDell Wright in the high jump and sprints, according to the coach.

This year's assistant track coaches are John Moon and Gary Cuccio.

Mrs. Walton discussed the 4-H presentations and strawberry orders with us. Beth showed us about sewing and Brian showed us how to change a spark plug. Mrs. Walton handed out materials for the Presentations' Contest. She then discussed the food groups with us and told us about a project about these.

The meeting was then adjourned.
